
LOCALS.

During Lent, Rev. V. Montalibet, O. S. B. delivered a course of lectures, at Norman. He is at present engaged in conducting a non-catholic mission at Okmulgee.

On Holy Saturday, Messrs. R. Bevill, A. McCay and G. Hosey, students of our College, were baptized in the parish church. The sponsors were, respectively, Rev. Fr. O'Brien, L. Luckinbill and C. Hanraty.

Rev. G. Scheer, O. S. B. delivered the Lenten sermons in Shawnee.

During the three last days of Holy Week, Rev. M. Fuerstenberg, O. S. B. preached a retreat to the nuns of St. Mary's Academy.

Rev. R. Defives, O. S. B. is at present taking the place of Msgr. Metter, at Norman.

Another member has been added to the parish of Sacred Heart, in the person of Cletus Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Zoeller, who made his advent into this vale of tears on Palm Sunday.

Rev. W. Ospital, O. S. B. paid us a short visit on his way to Hot Springs where he will undergo treatment for rheumatism. He will probably, later, replace Fr. Raphael at Norman.

Rev. M. Fuerstenberg is to be congratulated for the handsome pews which he has lately placed in the parish church.

As usual, Sacred Heart welcomed a great number of visitors, Easter, despite the disagreeable weather.

Rt. Rev. M. B. Murphy, O. S. B. pontificated and Rev. Fr. Maurus preached an eloquent sermon. The beautiful, artistic interior of the church reflected great credit on the Pastor and the Benedictine Sisters.

In the afternoon and evening the College students, assisted by the Van Buren Theatrical Company rendered an interesting and amusing program in St. Benedict's Hall.

At 3.30 P. M. the Ada ball team crossed bats with the Sacred Heart Nine on the College campus, and were defeated by a score of 6-8.

The following is a list of our visitors:

Rev. Fr. Blaise of Shawnee, with a number of his sanctuary boys, Rev. T. A. Murphy of McAlester, Messrs. E. LeFevre and J. Greely, Lehigh; A. McCay, McAlester; R. Thomas, Indianola; E. Fish, Oklahoma City; R. Manns, Shawnee; J. Twinam, Sasakwa; R. Finley '07, J. Smith '07, W. Aniels '08, S. Kelly, H. Brousseau, P. Gibbons; Mr. and Mrs. E. Flick, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Brousseau, Oklahoma City, Mrs. P. Hanraty, McAlester; Misses K. O'Keefe, Oklahoma City; L. Bohmer, Shawnee; and the Misses Gaddo of Lehigh.